Playwright Mentoring Programme: practice application form and guide

This practice application form and guide is designed to help you draft your submission before transferring it to JotForm, and to give you some suggestions on how to approach each question.

Make sure you have read the Frequently Asked Questions before starting your application. If you have any further questions about the Playwright Mentoring Programme, please get in touch via info@playwrightsstudio.co.uk.

The deadline for applications is 5pm, Monday 25 October 2021.

Other information

In addition to the information included in this practice form, as part of your application you will also need to provide:

- Contact details (including name, address and mobile number).
- Details of any communication or access requirements that we should be aware of to support your participation in the programme.
- Two fifteen-page, or 3,750 word samples of your writing. One of these must be from a stage play.

Applicants will be informed of the outcome of their submission no later than Friday 10 December 2021.

We wish you the best of luck with your application.

1. Tell us about your experience as a creative writer to date.
   Recommended word count: 500

2. Tell us about why you would like to be mentored and how mentoring will contribute to your development as a playwright right now.

   Recommended word count: 500

3. Tell us about your idea that you would like to develop into a play.

   Please note that this is not a synopsis. We acknowledge that it is likely that your idea is newly developed and so we encourage you to tell us about what has inspired you, what style or form you are interested in exploring and what is important to you about this story.

   Recommended word count: 500

4. Please let us know if there is any other information you would like the panel to know about you as part of your application.

The Equalities Form completed as part of this application is processed separately and anonymously and therefore cannot be considered as part of your submission. However, if there have been barriers to your development that you consider to be important for your application, please use this space to tell us about them.
